Key Peach = La Follette required courses
 Yellow = La Follette electives
 Green = Law required courses
 Blue = Law electives

Please Note: Most students take more than 111 credits (75 law and 36 public affairs) mainly through their involvement in Law Journals and additional law electives. Students should choose International Policy Electives from the courses offered at Public Affairs. Substitutions will be considered. Other electives may be taken from other departments including law as long as they are not included in the 75 credits taken for law school.
