

EUROPE IN CRISIS: THE FUTURE OF THE EU AND TRANS-ATLANTIC RELATIONS

Thursday, April 6, 2017

University of Wisconsin–Madison

Discovery Building, 330 N. Orchard St., De Luca Forum

2 p.m. Welcome and introductory remarks

Karl Scholz, Dean, College of Letters & Sciences

Don Moynihan, Director, La Follette School of Public Affairs

2:15 – 3:45 p.m. Brexit, Trump, and the Future of the Global Economy

Introduction of speakers: Mark Copelovitch, La Follette School of Public Affairs and Department of Political Science

Gillian Tett, U.S. Managing Editor, Financial Times

Discussants: Chad Bown, PhD, Peterson Institute for International Economics, and Mark Hallerberg, PhD, Hertie School of Governance

4 – 5:30 p.m. A Continent Re-Divided? European Integration in Turbulent Times

Introduction of speakers: Nils Ringe, Director, Jean Monnet EU Center of Excellence

Peter Hall, PhD, Harvard University

Discussants: Sophie Meunier, PhD, Princeton University, and Art Goldhammer, PhD, Harvard University

5:30 – 6:30 pm Reception

Robert M. La Follette
School of Public Affairs
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN–MADISON

Sponsored by the La Follette School of Public Affairs, the Jean Monnet EU Center of Excellence, and the Center for European Studies at the University of Wisconsin–Madison.

RSVP encouraged but not required to Bridget Pirsch, pirsch@lafollette.wisc.edu,